To the Hon. Board of Trustees of the Montana State Law Library.

I have the honor to herewith sumit to your Honorable Board a catalogue of all books in the Library on August 1, 1901.

The catalogue has been prepared in two general parts—Reports and Text Books. Under "Reports" may be found the published reports of courts of the United States and of the States, the Digests of these reports, statutes and session laws; also the reports of the Courts of England and Canada. The part etnitled "Text Books" is again divided into two sections, the first comprising all text books indexed by the names of their respective authors, and the second containing these same books, entered under their respective titles and subjects—both alphabetically arranged. It contains all books in the Library on August 1, 1901; the number is estimated at 10,000, exclusive of duplicates, older editions of text books, and pamphlets.

The work of preparing the copy has been, to insure accuracy, necessarily slow and laborious, and it is hoped but few errors may have crept into it.

Great credit is due to Mr. A. C. Schneider, the stenographer of the Supreme Court, for his valuable assistance in the arrangement, and preparation of this catalogue.

LOU GUTHRIE,
Librarian.

RULES OF THE MONTANA STATE LAW LIBRARY.

The Library will be open during the business hours observed in the public offices in the State House. During the session of the Legislative Assembly the Library will also be open from 7:30 to 9 o'clock P. M.

No books shall be taken from the Library, except by judges of courts of record, for use in the Supreme Court, District Courts, and the United States Courts, by State officers, and members of the Legislature during the session thereof.

For every book taken out of the Library, as above indicated, a receipt upon a printed slip provided for that purpose, made out by the person so taking it, must be delivered to the Librarian in every instance.

Books borrowed under this rule (except those taken by judges of courts of record), must be returned the same day. The borrower will be held liable for the cost of the book if not returned within a reasonable time after the day on which it should have been returned under this rule—which the Librarian is instructed to enforce rigidly.

Any person (other than the officers above mentioned) taking books from the Library without reporting the same to the Librarian and causing the same to be properly charged upon the register will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

Persons offending against any of the provisions of this rule will be denied the privileges of the Library.

By Order of the Board of Trustees.
